Unintentional Violations; Bona fide Errors

A lender or assignee may not be held liable for inadequate disclosures or defect in the right of rescission if the lender or assignee shows BY THE PREPONDERANCE of the evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid any such error. An error of legal judgment with respect to a person's TILA obligations is not considered a bona fide error.

A lender or assignee has no criminal, administrative, or civil liability under TILA for any failure to comply with its requirements, if within sixty (60) days after discovering an error, whether pursuant to a final written examination report, or a notice issued by a federal agency under section 1607 (e)(1) that the annual percentage rate or finance charge was inaccurately disclosed to the borrower, or through the lender's or assignee's own procedures, and prior to the institution of an action under this section or the receipt of a written notice of the error from the obligor, the lender or the assignee notifies the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to assure that the person will not be required to pay an amount in excess of the charge actually disclosed, or dollar equivalent of the annual percentage rate actually disclosed, whichever is lower. 15 USC §1640(b).

CRIMINAL LIABILITY:

Anyone who willingly or knowingly fails to comply with any requirement of the TILA will be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. TILA section 112.

CIVIL LIABILITY:

If a creditor fails to comply with any requirement of the TILA, other than with the advertising provisions, it may be held liable to the consumer for actual damages and court costs and reasonable attorney fees. The creditor may also be held liable for other damages arising out of individual or class action if certain requirements of the TILA are violated. TILA Sections 130 and 131.

ASSIGNEE LIABILITY

If you find, by a preponderance of the evidence, that there was a failure to comply with the Truth in Lending Act, that the violation appeared on the face of the disclosure statement related to the contract that was assigned to Assignee, then you must return your verdict in favor of Consumer and against Assignee, on each contract for which you find the Truth in Lending Act requirements violated and award Consumer statutory damages.

Evidence “I-1”

BASIC REQUIREMENTS

1. Lender failed to provide the borrower with the required 3 day cooling off period prior to the signing of the loan documents. A complete set of loan documents were to be provided to borrower to take home and review. Regulation Z, Part 226 and USC 15 § 1601 et seq.
 - The disclosures must be made clearly and conspicuously, and in writing, and in a meaningful sequence. Finally, this law requires that the creditor provide to the consumer a copy of the written disclosure, in a form the consumer may keep, before the consumer signs the obligation. The failure to do any one of these things, or more than one of them, is a violation of the Truth in Lending Act.

Authorities:

15 U.S.C. §§ 1604(b), 1638(b) (1); Reg. Z, 12 C.F.R. §§ 226.17(a), (b), (c).

LOAN APPLICATION

2. Lender failed to provide that information about the Borrower's ability to repay the loan was requested.

VIOLATION: Title 12 Code of Federal Regulation §226.34(a) (4)

3. Lender failed to provide that the Borrower authorized access of credit and financial information as required by 12 USC § 3401/3404 et seq.
4. There is no evidence that HUD Booklets regarding settlement and closing costs were provided to the borrower.

VIOLATION: Pursuant 12 USC § 2604 et seq.

APPRAISAL

5. As there was no copy of the appraisal included in the loan documents, the lender failed to provide that the appraisal meets FNMA/FHLMC standards for establishing value per FNMA/FHLMC MRI's/ALL Regs/12 USC §3349(a)(1) & (2)

Evidence "I-1"

6. Lender failed to provide that appraiser meets licensing requirements. ($1,000,000< State Certified) per 12 USC §3342(1) or (2) & §3350(5) (A) (B) & (C)
7. Lender failed to provide that Borrower received a copy of the appraisal or disclosure informing them of their right to request a copy of the appraisal.

RIGHT TO RESCIND

8. Lender failed to provide that there is a notice of right to cancel or rescind included in the paperwork. (2 copies for each borrower and borrower's spouse).
Violation: Reg. Z §§ 226.5 (a)(1) and 226.17(a)(1), 15 USC 226.15(b) and 226. 23 (b).
9. Lender failed to provide that Borrower was given right to cancel signed by both parties.

VIOLATION: Pursuant 12 Code of Federal Regulations, §226.18 et seq.

10. Lender failed to provide that there was a separate form to cancel included in the paperwork.

VIOLATION: Pursuant 12 Code of Federal Regulations, §226.18 et seq.

GOOD FAITH ESTIMATE

11. Lender failed to provide a Good Faith Estimate that has an OMB number. This provision is designed to deter the omission or insertion of misleading information. The requirement's purpose is to deter the implementation of a bait and switch schema.

Section 4(a) of RESPA mandates that HUD develops and prescribe this standard form to be used at the time of loan settlement to provide full disclosure of all charges imposed upon the borrower and seller. These are third party disclosures that are designed to provide the borrower with pertinent information during the settlement process in order to be a better shopper.

VIOLATION: Pursuant 31 USC § 1901

12. Lender failed to provide a separate sheet for each of the charges summarized on the Good Faith Estimate.
13. Interest Rate not disclosed on Good Faith Estimate, as one was not provided.

SETTLEMENT STATEMENT

14. Lender failed to provide Settlement Statement disclosing interest rate.

VIOLATION: Pursuant Title 12 Code of Federal Regulation, Section 226.18(j).

15. Lender failed to provide that each of the charges enumerated on the settlement statement were also presented on a separate sheet of paper.

NOTE AND MORTGAGE/ DEED OF TRUST

16. The lender failed to provide a complete copy of all the loan documents, signed by both the lender and the borrower, within three days of consummation. (Both the Lender and the Borrower must sign the Note and the Mortgage or Deed of Trust. Each signature must be notarized.)
17. Lender failed to provide that either the Note or Mortgage had an OMB number.

AUTHORITY: According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number.

TRUTH IN LENDING DISCLOSURES

18. Lender failed to provide that the finance charge is presented in a separate disclosure on its own sheet of paper.

VIOLATION: Reg. Z 226.18, 226.17(a) (1)

19. Lender failed to provide that the finance charge disclosure form has an OMB number.

VIOLATION: Pursuant Title 12 and 31 USC § 1901

20. Lender failed to provide that any prepayment penalty was given as a separate disclosure.

Evidence "I-1"

GENERAL DISCLOSURES

21. Lender failed to provide that Borrower was given all general disclosures.
VIOLATION: 15 USC Section 1638(a) (2) (B), (a) (9), (a) (11) and (a) (12) and Regulation Z, Part 226.17 et seq.
22. Lender failed to provide that the disclosures made in relation to the consumer credit transaction were made in the manner required by law.
VIOLATION: Title 12 Code of Federal Regulations Section 226.17(a) (1)
23. Lender failed to provide a statement that the consumer should refer to the appropriate contract document and clause for information about nonpayment, default, and the right to accelerate.
VIOLATION: This is usually stated in the NOTE, but reference to it should be in a disclosure pursuant Title 12 Code of Federal regulation, section 226.18(p).

UCC-1 LIEN

Consumer/Borrower needs to Verify
No UCC documents were present among the documents.

24. Lender failed to acquire a UCC -1 lien on the property as required and in contravention of Article 9 of the UCC.
The borrower must sign the UCC-1 papers for the original and each time the note is sold the borrower must sign again for each new assignee.
25. Lender failed to provide that the borrower signed papers acknowledging receipt of notice of the UCC-1 lien. No documents that reference any filings.
26. Lender failed to provide for each sale or transfer of the note to a new party that the borrower signed the UCC-1 lien papers. Consumer must verify that they did not sign any documents for transfer.

VIOLATION OF THE EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT

Codified to 12 C.F.R. § 202.14]

Evidence "I-1"

27. Lender failed to provide that certain disclosures were clear and conspicuous. Various documents among the loan paperwork were confusing.

Form of disclosures. A creditor that provides in writing any disclosures or information required by this regulation must provide the disclosures in a clear and conspicuous manner and, except for the disclosures required by §§ 202.5 and 202.13, in a form the applicant may retain.

28. Lender failed to provide that the loan application was present among the documents. Borrower does not recall filling an application form.
29. Thus, lender failed to properly assess borrower's ability to pay the loan.

"RESPA"
REAL ESTATE PROCEDURES ACT VIOLATION

The Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 (RESPA)
(12 USC 2601-17)
Amendment to TILA

30. If the note was sold or transferred, the lender failed to provide that notice was given to borrower within 15 days of the effective date of change in security interest. This violation dangerously exposes the borrower to double liability and misapplication of payments.

Advocates for JUSTICE
Auditor's Notes

The overall lack of disclosures in this file makes it reasonable to assume that this loan was "thrown together" carelessly. It is also reasonable to infer that the borrower would have had a difficult time understanding the program entirely, as many of the most integral parts of the loan disclosures were omitted.

It should be noted that the Lender failed to give the borrowers the proper number of Right To Cancel forms...only ONE form was provided (4 were required). The Lender is obligated to provide each borrower with TWO copies of the Right To Cancel, as well as two copies to any non-borrowing spouse of actual borrower.

Irregularities to be noted:

No invoice for processing charge

Settlement charges are over 3% of loan amount; check state statutes to see limitations on cash-out refinance loans for acceptable settlement charges.

Verify that the prior loan payoffs were properly calculated. If properly calculated the amount of payoff of prior loan is a legitimate part of the amount financed. Here, too, it is necessary to go behind the face of things and determine how the creditor arrived at that payoff figure. If it includes any charges from prior loans which were "unearned" those unearned charges must be considered part of the finance charge in the new loan.

LEGAL REMEDIES FOR MORTGAGE ABUSES

The single most important remedy for the homeowner facing foreclosure is:

The Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. §§1601 et seq. ("TILA"),

As amended by the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act of 1994 ("HOEPA"), Pub. L. 103-325, 108 Stat. 2190, adding 15 U.S.C. §§1602(aa) and 1639, and implementing FRB Regulation Z, 12 C.F.R. part 226.

There is also an Official FRB Commentary, 12 C.F.R. part 226 Supp. I, which despite its name is a regulation issued under the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. §553, and entitled to be treated as such. The portions of Regulation Z and the Commentary implementing HOEPA were substantially revised in December 2001. 66 FR 65604 (Dec. 20, 2001).

"The legislative history [of TILA] makes crystal clear that lack of uniformity in the disclosure of the cost of credit was one of the major evils to be remedied by the Act."

Note that an adhesion contract defense probably would be available even against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument.

Re: The Undersigned has received no written notice of dishonor from the private side of the Treasury. Furthermore, the issuing agents at ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers are now under the mandate of HALLENBECK vs. LEIMERT 295 U.S. 116, 122 and can be held personally responsible for the entire face amount of the discharged claim.

1. Federal law requires all related Confidential Commercial Information including the unprocessed documents and instruments held by the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., office in 7159 Corkland Drive - Jacksonville, Florida 32258, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, office in 1355 W. Dundee - Buffalo Grove, Illinois 60089, including, but not limited to their Agents/Officers (Respondents above) both be immediately presented before the authorized Treasury Data Integrity Board (TDIB) as prescribed in but not limited to Treasury Directives 25-06 and 16-14.
2. All current collection action must be suspended until the TDIB has issued its determination in this matter.
3. Any future action must be in accordance with and under the mandates of Article VII of the Bill of Rights since these claims and discharges are bonded. The Secured Party personally holds a Silver Surety Bond.
4. The record shows that the tender made by the Undersigned Secured Party was received by ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers and was not dishonored from the private side of the Treasury. However, no ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers or representative has acknowledged to the Undersigned Secured Party any adjustment in the accounting as authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury and mandated by the applicable Treasury Directives.
5. The law and Treasury Directives require that the accounting records at ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers must match those of the Secretary of the Treasury. Valid Bill of Exchange documents acknowledged by the Secretary of the Treasury without dishonor have been determined by the U.S. Supreme Court to be "legal tender and currency."
6. Any agent of the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers who fails to comply with the acknowledgement from the Secretary of the Treasury without dishonor can be held personally responsible and liable under the Erie and Clearfield Doctrines.
7. Pursuant to Title V USC, applicable Treasury Directives and this Notice and Demand the claimant ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers must now submit to the TDIB investigation for their discovery of both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.
8. The claimants are now required to present their records and provide full-disclosure to the TDIB. If their records reveal that the ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers received the instrument and did not return it to the issuer within seventy-two (72) hours with full disclosure notice on the documents of their rejection they are then under the mandates of the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court in HALLENBECK vs. LEIMERT, 295 U.S. 116, 122. Those agents who received the documents and failed act in accordance with the law and stare decisis are now responsible for the commercial face amount shown on the documents. By law the claim must be deemed discharged.

9. If the claimants either cannot or are not willing to produce such records in the face of the evidence from the Undersigned Secured Party that the Secretary of the Treasury acknowledged the documents without dishonor then it is clear their position is contrary to that of the Secretary. See DAVILA vs. SHALALA, 848 F Supp. 1141.
10. Title 18, Section 1001 of the Federal Criminal Code prohibits anyone from knowingly presenting false records to the TDIB or into a court such as inaccurate or contradicted claims). The Code decrees a penalty of five (5) years in prison and a $10,000 fine for each such offense against each claimant.
11. Simply stated in this matter, the Undersigned Secured Party understands the Treasury Data Integrity Board will seek to determine if the claimants received written notices of dishonor, a public act (not private) when both the Bill of Exchange documents were processed as directed and whether or not the accountings between the UCC Contract Trust office, and ABN AMRO Mortgage Group, Inc., and/or their Agents/Officers, including, but not limited to LaSalle Bank NA, and/or their Agents/Officers match.

Re: Loan #0009000194 (through alleged file 14-05-D041)

CEASE AND DESIST COLLECTION ACTIVITIES
PRIOR TO VALIDATION OF PURPORTED DEBT

Pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. Sec., 1601, 1692 et seq, this constitutes timely written Notice that I decline to pay the attached erroneous purported debt which is unsigned and unattested, and which I herein discharge and cancel in its entirety, with out dishonor, on the grounds of breach, false representation and fraud. This claim has been lawfully and fully discharged in accordance with The Administrative Procedures Act 5 USC 706 with acknowledgement from John W. Snow, Trustee, without dishonor.

15 U.S.C., Sec. 1692 (e) states that a "false, deceptive, and misleading presentation, in connection with the collection of any debt" includes the false representation of the character or legal status of any debt. It further identifies as a deceptive practice any threat to take any action which cannot be legally taken.

The Notice that CODILIS & ASSOCIATES, P.C. you, and your Agents/Officers have sent omits information which should have been disclosed, such vital citations, disclosing the agency's jurisdictional and statutory authority. Said Notice further contains false, deceptive and misleading representation, and allegations intended to intentionally pervert the truth for the purpose of inducing one, in reliance upon such, to part with property belonging to them and to surrender certain substantive legal and statutory rights. To act upon this Notice would divest one of his/her property and their prerogative rights, resulting in a legal injury.

Pursuant to 15 U.S.C., Sec. 1692 (g)(4) Validation of Debts. If CODILIS & ASSOCIATES, P.C. you, and your Agents/Officers have evidence to validate your claim that the attached does not constitute fraudulent misrepresentation and that one owes this alleged debt, this is a demand that within (10) days, CODILIS & ASSOCIATES, P.C. provide such validation and supporting evidence to substantiate your claim. Until the requirements of the Fair Debt Practices Act have been met and your claim is validated, you have no jurisdiction to continue any collection activities.

This is Constructive Notice that, absent the validation of your claim within (10) days, you must cease and desist any collection activity and are hereby prohibited from contacting me through the mail, by telephone, in person, at my home, or at work. You are further prohibited from contacting my bank, my employer or any third party. Each and every attempt of such contact, in violation of this act, will constitute harassment, defamation of character and will subject your agency and/or board including any and all agents in his/her/their capacity, who take part in such harassment and defamation to liability for actual damages, as well as statutory damages up to $ 10,000.00 for each and every violation plus a further liability for legal fees to be paid to any counsel which I may retain. Furthermore, absent such validation of your claim, you are prohibited from filing any notice of lien and/or levy and are also barred from reporting any derogatory credit information to any Credit Reporting Agency regarding this disputed purported debt.

Finally, pursuant to the Fair Debt Collection Act, Title 15, U.S.C., Sec. 1692 (g)(8), as you are merely an "agency" or "board" acting on behalf of someone else, this is a Demand that you provide the name of the original "principal" or "holder in due course" for whom CODILIS & ASSOCIATES, P.C. you, and your Agents/Officers are attempting to collect this debt.

I hereby attest that, to the best of my knowledge and belief that the above information is true correct and complete.

Leimert 295 US 116, 122.

Mr. Goldstein, regarding the attached matter, this has not been satisfied to my satisfaction. If you have any questions or concerns please do not hesitate to contact me in wring. Again thank you, for taking the time out.

Each is further prohibited from contacting the bank, employer or any third party connected to the Undersigned. Each and every attempt of such contact, in violation of this act, will constitute harassment, defamation of character and will subject this agency and/or board including any and all agents in his/her/their capacity, who take part in such harassment and defamation to liability for actual damages, as well as statutory damages up to $10,000.00 for each and every violation plus a further liability for legal fees to be paid to any counsel which the Undersigned may retain.
